

Computer Degrees

AS in Software and Web Development
BS in Computer Programming and Technology

#1 Job for 2019 by US News & World Report
Starting salaries range from $75,000 - $100,000 a year
Projected growth for the field is over 25% - more than double other fields
Many technology related professions require at least a bachelor's degree

Your path to Graduate School

Woodmont College degrees are recognized by top-tier Ivy League schools.

Why computers?

Computer Programming is an attractive profession with a wide range of employment opportunities. Virtually every industry has a need for computer programmers.

Why Woodmont?

Strong Training
Learn Practical Skills
Frum Environment
Affordable
Generous Transfer
Credit

Quality Education
Caring Support
Earn Your Degree While in Seminary or Yeshiva
Flexible
100% Online

How affordable?

$36,000 for full degree
As low as $11,850 with sufficient transfer credit. Up to 30% off of tuition for eligible students